THE South-
Carolina GAZETTE.
April 30th, 1753. [NUMB. 985.]

LONDON, Nov. 28.

WE hear that an application will be made, in the proper place, this winter, that all who have employments in the revenue shall execute them in person; because the taxes levied on the subject, ought to be wholely employed for the public service, and are granted for that purpose: Whereas such private persons as do nothing for the salaries they receive, visibly diminish the produce of the imposition, and create a new burden for their maintenance; which one has as good a right to expect as another; or rather, no one can have such a right at all —— Whatever, therefore, goes into the pockets of these insignificants, is in so much a cheat to the community, the more inexcusable as the community is in debt.

Letters write from Paris, that the attention of the public is wholly fixed to the grand struggle between the son of the duke de Chaulnes, and the baron de Montmorency, for mademoiselle Fel-drinn, the daughter of the marchioness de Pompadour, by the late Creffy, &c. &c. &c.

Dublin, Nov. 25. Last week died suddenly at Newcastle in the county of Dublin, Mrs. Margaret Annesley, aged One hundred and twenty-two years. She had enjoy'd a good state of health all her life, and to the last had the perfect use of her faculties; and what is very remarkable, four days before she died, seeing a Woodquest on a tree in her garden, she went into her house, brought out her gun, shot the bird, and then broil'd and eat it.

London, Nov. 30. Most of the Inhabitants of the venal E——gh throughout the kingdoms, are very desirous of knowing with some degree of certainty, when they may expect their harvest; but as yet the most Eagle-eyed agents have been able to afford no Light, which however they hope will be quickly in their power, when they can once see how the Land lies at DUBLIN. Amongst our modern Virtuosi, Astrology holds the place that Alchymy did in the last age; though some, who affect to be wiser than their Neighbours, pretend this as much a Craft as that.

By a private letter from the Havannah, we hear, that one James Peacock, the son of John Peacock, of Glasgow, who has lived there for many years; after infesting the sea a long time, had undertaken a voyage to Japan, which by the way of Cape Horn, he performed in four months and fourteen days; and that he returned by the way of the Cape of Good Hope, in three months and twenty three days, fifteen hours and ten minutes.

London, Dec. 12. Some letters from Spain assure, that the line of Spanish troops posted near Gibraltar has been lately considerably reinforced; but they presume it is only by way of precaution against the pestilence, as the garison of that place trade with the coast of Barbary.

LONDON, December 16.

TO ALL the Electors of the City and Liberty of Westminster.

To be seen, without Loss of TIME, upon the PARADE in St. JAMES's Park.

A Truly honorable and Worthy soldier, Neat as imported, come to receive a reward from his country, who has quitted one employment to receive another; with much more disinterestedness, affability, charity, and generosity, than Sir GEORGE VANDEPUT, or any body else, a great deal. He has a written character with him, from those from whence he came; who would have been very sorry to part with him, had they not been better contented with Hopson's choice: You are desir'd by them to give him All your votes, and be sure not to keep one for Sir GEORGE; because they know who is a proper person to represent you, better than you do yourselves.—— For further particulars look into the pawnbroker's paper, where his character, when sold, will be advertised.

London, Dec. 28. We have reason to hope, that the prudent and salutary Scheme of putting all children that come to be maintained by the Public under the Direction of the Foundling Hospital, adding what Rates are now allowed in Parishes to their Revenue, will speedily be carried into Execution; and not like many other good Designs be only mention'd, commended, and forgot.

There has been lately printed at Strasburgh, a large and beautiful History of Alsace; in which, amongst other things, the author assures us, that upon the strictest examination of the present state of that province, it has been found that there are seventy-one considerable towns, upwards of a thousand villages, and at least half a million of people. There is also in that history a very curious dissertation upon the particles of gold, that are frequently found intermixed in the sand of the Rhine; with other particulars relating to natural history, which are equally instructive and entertaining.—— We then rather mention this, because these histories are originally of our invention, and Lambert's peregrination of Kent, in one way, and Doctor Plot's history of Oxfordshire, in the other, have been the models to later Writers.

Extract of a Letter from Brest, dated Dec. 6.

The five men of war that sailed from hence the 28th of
'last month for Pondicherry, carry thither 16 pieces of bat-
'tering cannon, 70 field-pieces, 44 mortars, a great quan-
'tity of provisions and warlike stores, and rich presents for
'the Indian prince in alliance with this nation. Some other
'little squadrons have also sailed from this port, but their
'destination is kept very secret; but one thing, which is no
'secret, is the augmentation of our marine to a formidable
'pitch by the surprizing vigilance of M. Rouille.'——This is not sufficient to occasion any uneasiness here; if we can but make a K—— of the R———, we need not dread their navy, even tho' the whole nation were to be disarmed for the preservation of the G—me.

Dec. 30. Letters from Copenhagen take notice, that the woollen manufactories, lately set up in Iceland, go on so successfully, that they shall soon be able to cloath all the frigid country, without the help of foreign manufactures.

We hear that shortly, and before the next general election, there will be a public meeting of the freeholders, in most counties in England, to take measures in support of their antient rights and privileges, as freeholders, and in opposition to the extraordinary proceedings of a certain association enter'd into under pretence of preserving the game.

Amongst other wrong headed Princes, his Imperial majesty of Morocco is said to be in a strange fit of ill Humour; and, after taking Exceptions at some Passes which hinder'd his thievish Subjects from making Prizes of certain Vessels richly laden; pretends that a certain Nation ought to make good to him the value of some Spanish Effects by them transported; and threatens to cause their Minister to be imprison'd if they do not.

We have it recommended to us, by those honest wrong-headed politicians the UTOPIANS, to let the world know that they are preparing some choice Lectures upon LIBERTY; in which they propose to shew in what it really consists; how it is to be maintain'd; the Means by which it may be destroy'd; the Symptoms of its being in Danger; the Methods to prevent its Extinction; the great Difficulty of recovering it, when lost, and the strange Illusions practised to cheat the Vulgar, by artful Politicians, who pass the Phantom of precarious Licence upon them for LIBERTY, when that is really expired.

We

We hear that a certain noble Perſon, to ſhew that his good Senſe is not at all inferior to his ſprightly wit, has turned a deaf Ear to all the Hints given him about reſuming a Burthen he has more than once borne, and would, no doubt, have continued to bear, if he had not thought it inſupportable; and this notwithſtanding a Report that there was ſomebody ſo charitable as to be deſirous of taking beſt Part of the Weight off his hands.

An Extract of an amazing Letter from Weymouth, Dorſet.

" On the Sands, near this place has been lately caught a monſtrous large fiſh, upwards of 50 feet long and 12 feet thick: Its jaws are nine or ten feet when extended; its tongue, in ſize, may be compared to a large feather bed; and the paſſage down its throat large enough to receive a coach horſe; its teeth, which conſiſt of two rows on the under jaw, are about five inches long, which theſe h themſelves in holes in the upper jaw when the mouth is ſhut; its body (although one part in three was buried in the ſands) was higher than the head of a tall man on horſeback. When it was cut open, numbers, at leaſt 30 000 fiſh, of various ſizes, leap'd out of its belly. The two prongs of the tail are twelve feet aſunder: Its eyes very ſmall for ſo large a bulk not exceeding the bigneſs of an ox's eye; yet from the top of the noſe to the eyes is ten feet.——— The country, for many miles round, flock to ſee this ſurpriſing animal, and not leſs than 3000 were preſent when I ſaw it. The man who took this monſter ſays, that an anchor was thrown into its mouth, which it ſpit out with ſuch force as to break three new cables it was faſtened to, and at one ſtroke it overturned 300 men with its tail. The fiſh, at high water mark, came over our bank, and when the tide ebbed it could not get back again. The proprietors expect to make 120 hogſheads of oil from it "

Briſtol, Jan. 6 Yeſterday being old Chriſtmas day, the ſame was obſtinately obſerved by our country people in general; ſo that it being market day (according to the order of our magiſtrates) there were but few at market; who embraced the opportunity of raiſing their butter to nine-pence or ten-pence a pound.

London, Dec. 16 We hear that Peter Leigh, Eſq; high bailiff of Weſtminſter, is made governor of North-Carolina, in the room of Governor Johnſon, deceaſed.

New York, March 5. Laſt Thurſday Capt. Richey, in the Ship Beulah, of Philadelphia; Capt. Barnes, in a Liverpool Sloop, and Capt. Campbell, in a Brigt. ſailed for Newry, with flax ſeed, which makes 20 ſail of veſſels that loaded in this port, for different parts of Ireland, this year, with that commodity; and 'tis thought that not leſs than 10,000 hogſheads have been exported, which, if reckon'd on an average at 55 l. per hogſhead only, amounts to £. 27,500 ſaved in the province.

An account of goods exported from Philadelphia, from December 25, 1751; to December 25, 1752.
